Everybody loves chickens. They are so fluffy, cute and colorful, and they make the funniest noises. Girl chickens are called hens and you find them roaming around the farm, going: Cluck, Cluck, Squawk! Puk, Puk, Pukak! Boy chickens are called roosters and you'll see them jumping up on fences and singing: Cock-a-Doodee-Do!

Chickens are one of the most wonderful living things created by God, and they have a very special way of bringing new chicks into this world. In fact, you could call it an eggs-traordinary eggs-travaganza! Would you like to know how they do it?
