

In the Name of God the compassionate, the merciful

As far as the soldiers are concerned, they are by the commands of Allah a fortress and stronghold to guard and defend the subjects and the State. They are the ornaments of the ruler and the country. They provide power and protection to the religion. They propagate and preserve peace among mankind. In fact, they are the real guardians of peace and through them good internal administration can be maintained.

Introduction

Martyrdom is the height of man in the sky of refinement and exaltation of human talents; On the one hand, the perfection of discontinuity from trade and commerce is related to the essence of oneness, and on the other hand, spending one's life in the path of the proud life of the revolution and purification in the path of rational human life and the beauty of martyrdom is in its comprehensiveness.

The martyrs are "Akis al-Nas" in the sense that they did not sell their lives except at the price of Ferdows, and did not give a chance to "Zaman", which is the dominant destructive ruler, and rose up against it. The publication of books about the lives of the martyrs is an identity document and signs that should not be lost. The martyrs of the army interpreted with their blood the inherent identity and the main function of the army of the Islamic Republic of Iran. They showed that the army is always on the scene and in the forefront in defending the religious and national values of this border and region, and its forces are active, aware and committed to the covenant they made with their God and to the end against aggression and aggression. Aliens defend this land and water and create epics with their own blood.

What is certain is that what we saw and what happened to us during the time of the Holy Defence should be considered as unique and prominent pieces of the history of the past and the promised promise of the future; in fact, the miracle of the exceptional success of this generation has been that God's will is that their short life is the embodiment of the peak of humanity in the past and the future.

The mysterious past of Ashura and Karbala and the promised future of reappearance, in this unique piece of history, created a huge exhibition of the truth of creation and the essence of worship, whose spectators hugged the knee of silence for thousands of years and wiped their faces. They will be the charmers and seekers.

At no point in the history of several thousand years of Iran has Iranian national, patriotic and religious values been crystallized as much as during the period of holy defence. The values of sacred defence, in addition to having a certain variety and subtlety, also have a special stability and stability, and this is due to the unique features of the era of sacred defence.

The existing human being is a forgetfulness that if he does not review what he had in the past history, he will forget it, and the more he studies the past records, the more those issues will be repeated and fixed in his mind. In the case of the sacred defence, there are also circumstances that if we distance ourselves from it and do not write or read about it, it will be gradually forgotten.

Eight years of holy defence was the season of maturity and prosperity of a generation that would not have achieved this flourishing and fertility without breathing and attending this event.

During these wonderful years, great human beings were raised in all dimensions and fields; In the field of command of army units, martyrs such as Badayar Behbudi, with that courage and bravery, their memory will never be forgotten from the minds of friends and comrades.

It is still not possible to talk about the front and not reach these names and memories; But the point is that there were many who came and went in this dear and great opportunity. Some, like Badayar Behbudi, did not allow martyrdom to reveal the hidden angles of their abilities to everyone. Some were captured and killed, and some did not go beyond the flight ceiling, and whatever it was, they were and remained.

Reviewing the mystery of the success of those who shone more on the front and became meaningful and influential figures among their peers is necessary for today and tomorrow, and the martyr Badayar is one of them. What made Martyr Badayar Behbudi distinguished and distinguished him and made him a popular figure on the front, was not only his behaviour, character and performance in the moments of battle, but also the visible and revealed part of his personality. There are other things that are not in the patience of the pen and expression and may never be revealed to others except for a few hints, and that gentleness of recovery, in the true sense of the word, is confirmed by all the friends and comrades of the martyr.

The present book, which has been embellished by Zeinab Gooneh Publishing, the country's best publisher, can be used by military families to endure the hardships and hardships of the military profession and as a model. For spouses in keeping the family home warm; especially the young generation today should be exploited and considered.

Brigadier General Dr. Qumars Heidary
Army Ground Forces Commander

Publisher's speech

Perhaps because of the kind of view that has been given to the subject of sacred defence so far, and the sanctity we have defined for it, we have subconsciously turned it into a complex set that many are not even interested in opening out of curiosity; Let alone entering and attending.

◀ But one thing is certain; In the story that happened to our people during the years 1359 to 1367, there are men and women whose gender is different from the majority, and their quality is purer. Their actions cannot be judged by worldly standards, and only God is aware of the depth of their souls and the greatness of their existence, and that is enough.

The forthcoming book is the story of the mania of a generation that, with all their small and large attachments to the life of the world, gave up their desires and lost their most valuable possessions to us now, far from the tumult of war and bloodshed. They sacrificed the seconds of our lives.

The present work wants to testify to how many men and women sat on the throne of love anonymously and quietly drove their compound to the beloved land; It is so silent that no one even remembers their names and there is no memorial written on the stove.

Suore Sabz Cultural and Artistic Institute and Publications appreciates the support of Brigadier General Dr. Qumars Heidary (Commander of the ground force) and the cooperation of Colonel Ebrahim Pashapour (Head of Nezaja Martyrs Organization), Colonel (Reza Esmailpour, Morteza Mahmoudzadeh and Jahan Shahrezaei), Ladies (Tahereh Nabibi, Khatereh Behboodi, Sahereh Behboodi, Raheleh Behboodi and Nahid Nikbin), Men (Kamal Behboodi, Ali Khosravi and Mahmoud Nasr), respected author and all the loved ones who in all stages of compiling and publishing this work They have worked sincerely, he hope it will be liked by the respected readers.
