AUTHORS

With a thorough understanding of the essential skills required to succeed in the IELTS test, let our team of experts guide you on your IELTS journey.

Greg Archer

Greg Archer is an experienced, Delta-qualified teacher and teacher trainer who, after working in a number of countries, put down his teaching roots in his home city of London. He trained, qualified and began working as an IELTS Examiner in both Writing and Speaking at International House in 2012, and continued doing so after his move to Cambridge in 2013. Since then, he has been teaching at an international college, at various times managing the English department, developing appropriate courses to run alongside A Level and GCSE study, and occasionally teaching IELTS and English for Academic Purposes classes to students whose ambition is to enter a UK university or use English as a medium of instruction. He has a particular interest in Intercultural Rhetoric, and the way in which it impacts on writing skills.

Greg would like to thank Simon Williamson for his stimulating editorial counsel, Neil Holloway as the Mindset all-seeing eye, and Alice and Billy for being so understanding when deadlines loomed.

Claire Wijayatilake

Claire Wijayatilake is originally from Brighton, UK, and has been teaching English since 1988. After obtaining a Spanish degree at King's College London and a CELTA qualification, her first teaching job was in Spain. She moved to Colombo, Sri Lanka after meeting her Sri Lankan husband, and worked for British Council, Colombo for 16 years as a teacher, CELTA trainer, IELTS examiner and examiner trainer. She was a founder member of SLELTA (Sri Lanka English Language Teachers' Association) in the 1990s and has presented at conferences around the world. After completing her MA TESOL at the Institute of Education, London, she moved into international education as a teacher trainer and, later, a Principal. She completed her PhD in Applied Linguistics and English Language Teaching at Warwick University in 2012, after which she worked in a number of UK universities, teaching English for Academic Purposes. Claire is currently Director of English at IH London.
